Well done to all of you for your hard work and keeping up the Vale View Values.

Walking with Little Amal

What a spectacular sight in Dover on Wednesday night. Children from Vale View along with hundreds of others took part in a beautiful lantern procession. The route took them from Pencester Gardens and up to Dover Castle, which was lit bright red. Little Amal is a large puppet traveling across Europe to raise awareness of refugee children.

Reminders

Secondary School applications

Parents of Year 6 children, Secondary school applications close on Monday 1st November. If you have not yet applied, go to the Education section on the Kent County Council website.
