

Grammar Activities Week 4

Identify the main clauses.

1. During the weekend, I decided to visit Freeport because I needed to buy some fresh coffee.
2. The young-looking shop assistant was extremely helpful once I arrived.
3. She, very kindly, allowed various coffees to be tasted by myself but my wife wanted tea.
4. After tasting them all, the choice was easy to make.
5. It's a shame it was left on the kitchen counter.

Identify the prepositions.

1. During the weekend, I decided to visit Freeport because I needed to buy some fresh coffee.
2. The young-looking shop assistant was extremely helpful once I arrived.
3. She, very kindly, allowed various coffees to be tasted by myself but my wife wanted tea.
4. After tasting them all, the choice was easy to make.
5. It's a shame it was left on the kitchen counter.

Identify the adverbs.

1. During the weekend, I decided to visit Freeport because I needed to buy some fresh coffee.
2. The young-looking shop assistant was extremely helpful once I arrived.
3. She, very kindly, allowed various coffees to be tasted by myself but my wife wanted tea.
4. After tasting them all, the choice was easy to make.
5. It's a shame it was left on the kitchen counter.

Identify the subjects.

1. During the weekend, I decided to visit Freeport because I needed to buy some fresh coffee.
2. The young-looking shop assistant was extremely helpful once I arrived.
3. She, very kindly, allowed various coffees to be tasted by myself but my wife wanted tea.
4. After tasting them all, the choice was easy to make.
5. It's a shame it was left on the kitchen counter.

Identify whether active or passive.

1. During the weekend, I decided to visit Freeport because I needed to buy some fresh coffee.
2. The young-looking shop assistant was extremely helpful once I arrived.
3. She, very kindly, allowed various coffees to be tasted by myself but my wife wanted tea.
4. After tasting them all, the choice was easy to make.
5. It's a shame it was left on the kitchen counter.