

Year: 6 Summer: 2 Week: 1

Focus: Endings of ly

Dictation

The weather was completely _____.

His desk was as _____ as ever.

It was unlikely she would make the bus in time.

They had a lovely _____ stroll down the road.

The garden was quite simply _____.

Their _____ behaviour had given them a reputation.

She was so _____ compared to her friend.

To _____ with the rules, they needed a photograph.

Old Doris was extremely _____ for her age.

Both her hands were _____ because of the bath.

Year: 6 Summer: 2 Week: 1
Focus: Endings of ly

Dictation (ANSWERS)

The weather was completely ghastly.
His desk was as disorderly as ever.
It was unlikely she would make the bus in time.
They had a lovely leisurely stroll down the road.
The garden was quite simply heavenly.
Their dastardly behaviour had given them a reputation.
She was so melancholy compared to her friend.
To comply with the rules, they needed a photograph.
Old Doris was extremely sprightly for her age.
Both her hands were wrinkly because of the bath.