

EYFS Remote Learning Grid - Week commencing 4th January

The Gruffalo doesn't have a home. Can you create a home for him out of junk modelling? Make sure it is nice and snug for him!

Can you do some baking at home? Using the recipe below, can you make the Gruffalo's paws?

Or you bake some other Gruffalo treats to enjoy.

On your walk, can you use some natural resources to find different amounts? Remember to count them slowly and carefully! Can you remember the rhymes to help you form your numbers correctly?

Can you make a Gruffalo assault course around your house? You might want to jump over the sofa or crawl under the table.

Can you become Tricky Word Detectives? Using the template below, or creating your own, can you look through different books and find any tricky words? Remember to look very carefully!

Who is special to you in your life? Can you draw a picture of them and label it with an adult? It might be your mum, dad, pet goldfish or dog.

Go for walk with an adult. Can you collect some leaves, pinecones and sticks? You might want to take a picture of where you went on your walk or make a journey stick to share with your friends (see below for pictures.)

A phoneme frame breaks up a word into individual sounds- here is an example:

c	a	t

Can you blend the sounds below to read the words? As a challenge, can you create your own?

Can you practise your counting? Sing the nursery rhyme below and practise with an adult.
